buy the application. We are happy to announce the release of BitTorrent Client 3.7 version. More information about the new features can be found here. PLEASE CHECK THE FEATURES LIST FOR ANY DUPLICATE FEATURES! Since version 3.7 BitTorrent Client supports Resume Transfers. Open a new BitTorrent client 3.7 window and start a file transfer. When the other computer is online at your router you will receive a notification. Resume Transfers are supported for many weeks, when you resume a transfer it resumes where you left off. A case where you resume a transfer after some time, you will get a message: A file called .bitrates was found during the resume. Do you want to add it to your torrent? The .bitrates file contains information about the download speeds of a specific torrent. This information can be used as a basis for your bandwidth settings for the future. This is not a file created by BitTorrent client. This is a file created by some third party

BitTorrent Client 3.7 supports the new BitTorrent Protocol DHT. This makes the search results more accurate. A case where you download via the DHT, you will get the option to search for peers or swarms. The New BitTorrent client also supports the new kind of torrent files created by UPnP / DLNA enabled devices. If you have such a device you will be able to download the torrent file via the UPnP protocol. When in the GUI you click on the network icon of the app, you will see some options:
